

Le Yacht Club - Beirut Newsletter Sept 2019

Good Times Coming Your Way

Le Yacht Club - Beirut Management is glad to officially announce the relaunching project of its bar lounge. The bar will be soon given a deluxe revamp, all the while preserving its intimate atmosphere and welcoming vibes. Further details regarding the transitional phase and reopening will be subsequently shared with you via a comprehensive email.

Join us at Destination Luxury

As part of our continuous efforts to reinforce Le Yacht Club - Beirut's international presence, we will be participating in this year's edition of Cannes Yachting Festival. Keep an eye on our official Instagram account for an exclusive live coverage. As for those who wish to attend Monaco's Yacht Show between 25 and 28 September, they are kindly requested to contact us for complimentary private passes.

La Dolce Vita Beyond Borders

We would like to kindly remind you of our numerous reciprocal agreements around the world. As shown in the above map, our international collaborations enable you to live up to the luxurious standards you merit, across the globe. To know more about our reciprocal agreements, please check our official website.

Plan Ahead for Splendor

It's never too early to plan impressive stays! We have started to take stays' reservations for the fall season and we are looking forward to hosting you and your esteemed guests in our avant-garde and timeless suites. Contact us now for early booking rates.

To find out more details and/or make any reservation, please contact us on 01-762800